

The Knickerbocker Theatre Disaster:

100 Years Later
98 Lives Lost
28 Inches of Snow

Join the the Adams Morgan Partnership BID and the Adams Morgan neighborhood community for a candlelit vigil marking the 100th anniversary of the Knickerbocker Theatre Disaster.

Friday January 28 at 6PM
Public Plaza at
1801 Adams Mill Road, NW
(near the bulletin board kiosk)

Learn about the record-breaking snowstorm, the theater's history, and stories of the 98 lives tragically lost.

HUNDREDS, DEAD OR INJURED, BURIED UNDER RUINS AS ROOF OF KNICKERBOCKER THEATER COLLAPSES; RESCUERS BATTLE STORM THAT PARALYZES CITY

*Bodies of 25 Victims Recovered;
55 Wounded Dragged From Debris;
Frantic Search for 8 Missing*

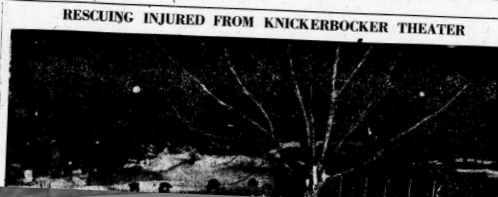

*Rescue Work Speeded
With Hundreds Lying
In Tons of Ruins.*

CAPITAL BOWS IN GRIEF AT DEATH OF 106 IN THEATRE

Search of Knickerbocker Wreckage Suspended in Belief That All Bodies Have Been Recovered

40 OR MORE KILLED AND SCORES INJURED WHEN KNICKERBOCKER THEATER CAVES IN

ROOF COLLAPSES UNDER SNOW AND BALCONY FALLS

STORM GOES SEAWARD; LEAVES TRAFFIC TIE-UP AND 26 INCHES OF SNOW

Trolley Service Suspended at 9 O'Clock Last Night—Cars Stalled Along Streets.

85 on Growing Death List as Theater Ruin Is Cleared